

James T. Bullock

Fire and Safety Consultant October 1999 to present

- NY Fire Consultants, Inc., President

Fire Department, City of New York January 1970 to October 1999

- Appointed Firefighter January 24, 1970 Engine 332 & Ladder 9
- Promoted Lieutenant July 15, 1978, Engine 209
- Promoted Captain January 9, 1982, Company Commander Ladder 8
- Promoted Battalion Chief April 4, 1988, Battalion 1 & Commanding Officer Marine Division
- Promoted Deputy Chief June 26, 1993, Commanding Officer Special Operations, Division Chief Division 1

Firematics Training

- F.D.N.Y. Firefighting School, • F.D.N.Y. First Line Officers School, • F.D.N.Y. Chief Officers Incident Command Course, • Emergency Medical Technician, • Rapid Intervention Team
- Pennsylvania State Fire Academy, • Hazardous Material Technician, • Chemical Protected Clothing, • Hazardous Material Railroad and Tank Car School, • Hazardous Material Incident Commanders, • Marine Shipboard Firefighting, • F.D.N.Y. Foam Coordinator, • Boots & Coots Foam School, • National Fire Academy Management Cluster Course Yale University, • Department of Defense Weapons of Mass Destruction, • U.S. Navy Advanced Fire Fighting School,

Command Assignments

Deputy Chief, Division 1, October 96 to October 99:

- Supervised the on duty firefighting units in the southern half of Manhattan. 5 Battalions, 17 Engine Companies, 14 Ladder Companies, Total of 5 Chiefs, 7 Captains 24 Lieutenants and 720 firefighters on duty daily.
- Division Fire Prevention Coordinator, which included 374 Schools and Colleges, 23 Hospitals, 130 Hotels, 1300 Factories, over 20,000 total buildings. Division 1 contains some of the most expensive real estate in the world (Empire State Building, World Trade Center, New York Stock Exchange, Statue of Liberty)

Commanding Officer, Special Operation Command, January 94 to October 96:

- Supervised all fire department units other than Engine and Ladder companies, 5 Battalion Chiefs, 13 Captains 45 Lieutenants, 250 Rescue Specialist, 35 Haz Mat Specialist, 175 Firefighters, 12 Marine Pilots, 24 Marine Engineers.
- Coordinated merger of the Emergency Medical Service's Special Operation Division into the Fire Department's Special Operation.
- Initiated and developed Technical Rescue School and Hazardous Material Training School.
- Originated the placement of fast response boats (Auxiliary Rescue Craft) in Jamaica Bay and Flushing Bay during the boating season.
- Developed the Rest and Recuperation Units assigned to all Boroughs of city and responds to full first alarm fires.
- Tested the performance of bunker gear with sarin nerve gas simulate. The testing was developed by the U.S. Army Aberdeen Proving Grounds with the operational support of F.D.N.Y. Special Operation Command, September 1996.

- Rescue Operations: • 5 Rescue companies, • Rescue Collapse Apparatus, • 2 Tactical Support Units. • Technical Response Vehicle, • 2 Squad Companies, • Scuba Operation, • Technical Rescue School, Rescue • Tool Evaluations Unit, • Urban Search and Rescue, New York Task Force 1
- Hazardous Material Operations: • Hazardous Material Company, • 3 Haz Mat Support Units, • Cost Recover Unit, • Meter Testing, • Haz Mat Training School
- Marine Operations: • 3 Marine Fireboats, • 3 Auxiliary Rescue Craft, • Marine Repair Shops
- Mask Service Unit: • Repairs and Maintenance of 3,280 Self Contained Breathing Apparatus and over 21,000 cylinders
- Decontamination Unit: • Decon Portable Showers, • Laundry Unit, • Bunker Gear Loaner Program, • 5 Rest and Recuperation Units

Fire Commissioner's Executive Staff, January 94 to October 96:

- Advisor to Fire Commissioner Howard Safir on all matters concerning Urban Search and Rescue, New York Task Force 1 and specialty rescue operations

Commanding Officer, Marine Operation, January 91 to April 93:

- Supervised the purchase, construction and delivery of 55-foot fireboat cost $800,000 as the Battalion Chief, Executive Officer. Assumed the role of Commanding Officer in September 1992 until promoted to Deputy Chief.

Major Fire and Emergency Incidents:

- Officer in Command of all major fire or emergencies in assigned division;
- Operations Officer at the fifth alarm NBC Studios Rockefeller Center
- Special Operations New York Task Force 1 deployments: • Oklahoma City Bombing, • Hurricane Marilyn • 1996 Olympics in Atlanta
- Commanding Officer F.D.N.Y. scuba operation at TWA Flight 800.
- Commanded rescue operations at train collision on Williamsburg Bridge over the East River

Instructor/Speaker

- New Jersey State Fire College: Created and taught "High Rise Firefighting", "Hotel Fires – Rescue and Response" "Elevator Fires and Emergencies" 1992 to 1994
- New Jersey Safety Exposition: Speaker "Hotel Fire Safety" 1992 and 1993
- Elisabeth New Jersey Fire Department: Conducted hand on training session with joint paid and volunteer firefighters 1994
- New York Fire Department Institute: Seminar speaker 1994 to 1996
- New York State Office of Fire Prevention & Control: Developed New York State Certified Fire Chiefs Command Course with the course due to start in 1999

Consultant Fire Promotional Examinations,

- New York City: Lieutenants 1986, Firefighter 1987, Battalion Chief 1992
- New Orleans, Louisiana: District Chief 1995
- Columbus, Ohio: Deputy Chief 1996

Special Projects,

- International Association of Fire Chiefs: Fire Chief Officers Certification Program
- Mayor's Office of Emergency Management: Interagency Chemical Exercise (ICE Drill)

Organizations,

- Fire Chiefs Association: President 1997 to 1999, Treasurer 1993 to 1996. As Fire Chief's treasurer computerizes records, as president created Fire Chiefs Associations WEB page (<http://www.goeocities.com/Heartland/9917>)
- International Association of Fire Chiefs
- New York State Association of Fire Chiefs Regional representative
- Uniformed Fire Officers Association
- Uniformed Firefighters Association
- Retired Firefighters Association