

Robert G. Kruper
516-707-4020
rkruper@nyfiresafe.com

New York City Fire Department

1981 – 1990: Firefighter

Assigned to Ladder Company in Lower Manhattan. Participated in emergency response, fire suppression, and building inspection.

1990 – 1998: Lieutenant

Assigned to Ladder Company in Downtown Brooklyn.

- Supervised fire suppression activities on the company level.
- Designed and structured company drill activities, according to the FDNY curriculum.
- Supervised building inspection activities and enforcement of NYC Fire Prevention laws.

1998 – 2002: Captain

Assigned to Ladder Company in Williamsburg Brooklyn

- In addition to the duties of company officer, was also Company Commander, responsible for Fire Company overall readiness staffing , training, policy and procedures.
- Assisted in the preparation of the FDNY 2002 Captains promotional exam

Education

1976 – 1980: CUNY Hunter College – Bachelor of Arts

1981: FDNY Probationary Firefighters Academy

1990: FDNY First Line Supervisors Program